

Line SOR converges faster than Point SOR, and also reaches optimal value of relaxation parameter faster. The same trend can be observed: higher W will give lower Iterations, but very high W will cause divergence. It can also be seen clearly that $w = 1.3$ is the optimum value for this scheme (less iterations).