

It can be seen that higher ω will give lower Iterations. However, very high ω will cause the Iterations to rise and from later plots, the solution can also diverge. The optimum relaxation parameter is shown clearly in this plot, where $1.8 < \omega < 1.9$.